The purpose of the consultation is NOT to provide individual legal advice, but rather to provide information to the public concerning access to the legal system. All consultations are conducted virtually via telephone.

The volunteer attorney answers questions about 1) the law, 2) the validity of your cause of action 3) whether, based on information provided, it would be advisable to retain counsel.

To request a consultation: Please email BSmith@tovah.org and pay the $12.00 fee using our online link. https://donation.tovah.org/donations/cfw-family-law-consultations/.

Appointments will not be scheduled without payment of the fee. Upon receipt of your application, we will call you to schedule your appointment.
